Synopsis

David lay quite still in the darkness of the camp, waiting for the signal.

“You must get away tonight,” the man had told him. “Stay awake so that you’re ready just before the guard is changed. When you see me strike a match, the current will be cut off and you can climb over – you’ll have half a minute for it, no more.”

David escapes from a concentration camp and flees across Europe. He is utterly alone – who can he trust? What will await him back home?

And all the while he knows that they may catch up with him... [Courtesy of the publisher]

Author Biography

Anne Holm

Anne Holm, born Else Anne Lise Jørgensen in Oksbøl, Denmark (September 10, 1922 – December 27, 1998) was a Danish journalist and children's writer. Her books were written mainly for young readers, although they are also quite popular with adults. Her best known book is I Am David (1963) which was also published as North to Freedom. It won the ALA Notable Book award in 1965, the 1963 Best Scandinavian Children's Book award and the Boys Club of America Junior Book Award Gold Medal. She also wrote Peter (1966), which tells the story of a teenage boy who travels in time to ancient Greece and medieval England.

Questions

1. Anne Holm is a very skillful writer. What atmosphere does she create in the very opening paragraph of this novel?

2. Describe the setting at the beginning of Chapter One.

3. As the novel opens, what was David being urged to do? What was David's opinion of the man who was urging him to do this?

Good to Know

Salonica (Thessalonica) is the second largest city in Greece. Today the metropolitan area of the city has a population of over one million people. It is considered as the cultural center of the country. Two of the books of the Bible are addressed to the church in Thessalonica.

4. Cite one example of David's courage in this chapter.

5. David used a _____ to guide him on his journey. He was told to travel south until he reached the city of _____.

6. Describe how by taking a serious risk, David was able to speed up his journey.

7. Why do you think that David hadn't allowed himself to think of Johannes for the past three years?

8. Johannes died of a _____.

9. Describe in detail how David reached Italy from Salonica, Greece.

10. When David finally reached the shores of Italy at the end of Chapter One, what impressed him the most?

Language Activities

A. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. An example from Chapter 1: ... when fear grew to a sharp-pointed terror... In this example fear is personified – growing as if it were a living thing.

a) Why do you think personification is a literary device used by many authors?

b) Create your own example of personification.

c) Bonus: Keep your eyes open for another example of personification. When you find one, come back to this page and record it below.

B. Write the plural of the following nouns from this chapter. Careful – you may wish to consult a dictionary for some of these words.

Singular Noun	Plural Noun man match knife victory person tooth lorry
Italian body beauty

C. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word PAN can also form the word NAP. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters.

Each of the words in the left-hand column are found in the first chapter.

Word	Anagram	Clue
spoke		Prods.
others		Fired again.
table		Sound made by a sheep.
partly		Not very much of something.
later		Change.
bread		Removed clothing.

D. Find three examples of the following parts of speech from this chapter.

Nouns	Verbs	Adjectives

Extension Activities

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel.

Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first chapter of I Am David. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
