Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one chapter of Johnny Tremain and is comprised of five of the following different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language Activities
- Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to:

a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
c) compare and contrast two characters;
d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
e) drawing inferences from the text;
f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include The American War of Independence, personal growth, courage and persistence, patriotism/nationalism, loyalty and friendship.

Synopsis

The year is 1773; the scene is Boston. Johnny Tremain is fourteen and apprenticed to a silversmith. He is gifted and clever and lords his talent over the other apprentices – until tragedy strikes. A crucible of molten silver breaks and the silver spills over Johnny's right hand. The hand is so badly burned, it's useless – and now, so is Johnny.

Since he is no longer able to become a silversmith, Johnny's life takes a new path, one that will bring him in touch with Paul Revere, John Hancock, Samuel Adams, and other Boston patriots and with all the exciting currents that will lead to the Boston Tea Party and the Battle of Lexington. Johnny's dream of being a silversmith may be dead, but he has discovered a new dream that will make him a part of American history. [Courtesy of The Publisher]

Chapter I

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of Johnny Tremain is, of course, Johnny Tremain, a fourteen-year-old boy whose misfortune thrusts him into the center of some of the most important events in American history. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

<table>

1. Father O'Reilly is a very ____________ priest.
2. At last Mr. Lapham raised his ____________ eyes.
3. The two little boys tried to be as ____________ as possible around their cranky sister.
4. The amount of sardines caught by the fishermen was ____________.
5. Charlotte was quite ____________ after being scolded by the teacher.
6. The two huge defensemen proved to be a ____________ pair.
7. “Try not to say anything ____________ to make him upset,” his father suggested.
8. Chamberlain awoke from his ____________ just in time to see his laptop disappear.
1. What is the setting of the story at the beginning of Chapter One?

2. How would you describe Johnny's personality?

3. Match each character in the left column with the correct description in the right column.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

4. Johnny is _______ years old when the story begins.

5. Why might it be dangerous for Johnny to treat Dove and Dusty so badly?
6. What plans did the Lapham family have for Johnny?

7. What was there about Johnny that concerned Mr. Lapham?

8. Why was Johnny asked to be present when Mr. Hancock gave his order to Mr. Lapham?

9. What was there about the Hancock order that Johnny found so difficult?

10. What clues did Johnny have that indicated that he might be related to Lyte?
Language Activities

A. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here is such an example from Chapter One: Old Mr. Lapham had worked well...

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A beautiful set of earrings.</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A noisy fish market.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Your choice.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

B. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. The following is an example from Chapter One: The fine clothes seemed a little pathetic.

Describe how this last sentence is an example of personification.

Create your own example of personification.

As you continue to read through the novel be on the lookout for other examples of this literary device. If you should find one, come back to this question and enter it below.
C. Cinquain Poems

A Cinquain poem has five lines and most often does not rhyme. Write two Cinquain poems about both Johnny and Cilla, using what you know about them from this chapter.

| Line 1 is one word | Santa
| Line 2 is two words | Saint Nick
| Line 3 is three words | Long white beard
| Line 4 is four words | Christmas Eve present-giver
| Line five is one word | Jolly

D. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first chapter of Johnny Tremain.

E. John Hancock

Although John Hancock was an important patriot of the American Revolution, today he is best known for his stylish signature on the Declaration of Independence.

John Hancock plays a rather important role in the early chapters of this novel. Using resources in your school library or on the Internet investigate the life and accomplishments of this important figure. From the information gathered, write a one page report on Mr. Hancock on a separate sheet of paper. Your report should include personal information about this person (birthdate, place of birth, death date), accomplishments, how he achieved fame, etc.
