Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on three chapters of Snow Treasure and is comprised of five of the following different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language Activities
- Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to:

a) determining the meaning of words and phrases... including figurative language;
b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
c) compare and contrast two characters;
d) determine how characters ... respond to challenges;
e) drawing inferences from the text;
f) determining a theme of a story... and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include World War II, Norway, courage, heroism and sacrifice, patriotism, leadership, friendship, personal growth, trust.

Synopsis

Peter Lundstrom never thought he would become a hero. But that bleak winter of 1940 was like no other. Nazi troops parachuted into Peter's tiny village and held it captive. Nobody thought they could be defeated – until Uncle Victor told Peter how the children of the village could fool the enemy.

It was a dangerous plan. Peter and his friends had to slip past Nazi guards with nine million dollars in gold hidden in their sleds. It meant risking their country's treasure – and their lives. [Courtesy of the publisher]

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of Snow Treasure is twelve year old Peter Lundstrom who lives in a small Norwegian town near the Arctic Circle. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

1. Paul and his sister ____________ for a moment what trail they should follow.
2. After being scolded by his teacher, Marcel was quite _________ for the rest of the day.
3. If the Nazis attack the village they are sure to be ___________ until they are victorious.
4. The small ship sailed up the narrow ___________ until arriving at my uncle's farm.
5. The mountain's steep ___________ was most treacherous.
6. George can be very ___________ to his teachers when he is in a bad mood.
7. As a ___________ we will place pillows all around the baby's crib.
8. Despite his years of experience, the ship's ___________ was unable to find his way to port.
1. Describe the setting of the story?

2. Investigate: Using resources in your school library or on the Internet find out the names of the three countries making up Scandinavia.

   2.
   3.

3. Put on your detective hats. Do you think the author made a mistake? Late in Chapter One Peter and his friends get into a snowball fight. Using evidence from earlier in the chapter, why is this surprising?

4. Here's a math question for you. Mr. Lundstrom states that thirteen tons of gold is worth nine million dollars in the United States. Thirteen tons calculates to be 416,000 ounces which means that the price of gold at that time was $21.36. Today gold is worth $1070.50 per ounce in the United States. Calculate what thirteen tons of gold would be worth today in the Answer Box below.

   Answer Box

5. More than a hundred children attended Riswyk School.  True or False

6. For what reason did Uncle Victor visit Peter's classroom?
7. What was the task that Peter thought Uncle Victor was going to ask him and the other children to do?

B. A Quatrain Poem Celebrates Courage.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is the first four lines of the famous poem, Defeat, written by Edgar Guest.

No one is beat till he quits,
No one is through till he stops,
No matter how hard Failure hits,
No matter how often he drops.

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of  A – B – A – B Other rhyming schemes include: AABB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first three chapters of our novel (like courage).

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

</tbody>

Bonus Question.

Why do you think the word Failure is capitalized in Line 3?
C. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here’s one such example: from Chapter Two: Thirteen tons!

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The sound of a snowmobile.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A hurricane!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Your choice.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

D. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is: “So you thought I was crazy!” Helga Taunted. “Crazy as a hare!”

~ What is being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) an incredible snowball fight

b) the sound of a sled going down a hill

c) your choice
Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel. Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first three chapters of our novel. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
