Suggestions and Expectations

This 79 page curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one or two chapters of The Boy in the Striped Pajamas and is comprised of four different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language and Extension Activities

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking.

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to:

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

Students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) as well as a Student Checklist (p.6).

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include bigotry and persecution (anti-Semitism), Nazism and Adolf Hitler, the importance of family and friends, loyalty in personal relationships, character growth, developing perseverance in the face of adversity.

The Boy in the Striped Pajamas

By John Boyne

Synopsis

The Boy in the Striped Pajamas is the unforgettable story of two boys: Bruno, the son of the Commandant of the infamous World War Two concentration camp, Auschwitz, and Shmuel, an inmate of the camp.

Nine-year-old Bruno’s world is turned upside down when his family is uprooted and moved to far off Out-With, where he has no friends and must endure the insufferable Lieutenant Kotler. From his bedroom window, Bruno sees a fence near their house, and behind it are many people – all wearing striped pajamas. Bruno manages to become friends with a boy his own age, Shmuel, who lives on the other side of the fence, and wears peculiar striped pajamas all the time. Although their only contact is talking through the fence in a secluded area, the two boys soon become fast friends.

Along the way Bruno meets an assortment of fascinating characters including Herr Liszt, his boring tutor, Pavel, the waiter who is also a medical doctor, and The Fury (Adolf Hitler) who comes to dinner.

In the unforgettable conclusion, Bruno is told by his father that Bruno, his mother and sister will be returning to live in Berlin. He and Shmuel plan one last adventure in which Shmuel brings Bruno a pair of striped pajamas. Bruno sneaks into the camp to help Shmuel look for his father, who has disappeared, but both boys are swept up by the camp guards and perish.

Chapter 1

Before you read the chapter:

Moving to another town or city, or even to another home, can be a most difficult experience. Describe from your own experience, or from your imagination, how it would feel to move to a strange new place – as Bruno must do in this novel. What might an advantage to moving to a new location?

1. Bert didn’t think he could ______________ the strength to finish the race.
2. My aunt showed her ____________ by stamping her foot angrily.
3. The situation was reduced to ____________ when the emperor entered the ballroom.
4. “It is so hard for the average person to earn a ____________ salary,” the reporter said.
5. She didn’t even _______________ before answering the judge’s question.
6. For her birthday she received a _______________ skirt from her cousin, Sara.
7. My mother ordered the maid to go out into the foyer and polish the _________________.
8. “Oh go peddle your papers,” she said ________________.
9. There must have been more than a hundred people who ____________ the new law.
10. “Don’t just ________________ that the president is always right,” the commentator suggested.
1. Bruno was told by his mother to treat the family’s maid, Maria, respectfully, and “not just imitate the way Father spoke to her.” How must Bruno’s father have usually spoken to Maria? What do you think this tells us about his father’s personality?

2. The setting of a story includes not only where but when the story takes place. What is the setting of Chapter One?

3. In the first few chapters Bruno mentions a mysterious character called the Fury. In Chapter One, what had the Fury done the week before?

   b. In turns out that Bruno actually has misheard his parents when speaking of The Fury. What his parents are saying is The Führer. Investigate who this character was and relate at least two interesting facts about him.

4. Who was Gretel, and why do you think Bruno referred to her as a Hopeless Case?

5. Why did the family have to move?
6. What (or who) was Bruno going to miss the most when he moved away?

7. In their home, what was “Out Of Bounds At All Times And No Exceptions?”

Language Activity

A. The author, John Boyle, enjoys using a variety of literary devices in this novel. One such device is onomatopoeia. An example is “making whooshing sounds as he went.” Define onomatopoeia, and use your imagination to think of another example of this device.

B. Many English words can have more than one meaning. This is especially true of words that can be used as both a noun and a verb. For the following create sentences to illustrate the meaning of each word from Chapter One as a noun and as a verb.

Word: pack

C. Moving ~ A Quatrain Poem.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse, four lines in length. Such poems are often light and humorous. Here is a more serious one by the famous poet, Atrocious Halitosis. It is called, Moving Away. (Bruno could probably identify with this one.)

No one likes to move away,
It makes one's heart to weep.
I'd like to stay where I was raised,
And all my friends to keep.

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of  A – B – C – B  Other rhyming schemes include: AABB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the Prologue and first two chapters of our novel.
