Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Most sections of the novel study focus on six chapters of The Warden's Daughter and are comprised of five of the following activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language Activities
- Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to:

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include coming of age, heroes come in a variety of disguises, coming to grips with one's past, bad times pass, loyalty and friendship.

The Warden's Daughter

By Jerry Spinelli

Synopsis

From Newbery Medalist Jerry Spinelli (Maniac Magee, Stargirl) comes the "moving and memorable" (Kirkus Reviews) story of a girl searching for happiness inside the walls of a prison.

Cammie O'Reilly lives at the Hancock County Prison--not as a prisoner, she's the warden's daughter. She spends the mornings hanging out with shoplifters and reformed arsonists in the women's exercise yard, which gives Cammie a certain cache with her school friends.

But even though Cammie's free to leave the prison, she's still stuck. And sad, and really mad. Her mother died saving her from harm when she was just a baby. You wouldn't think you could miss something you never had, but on the eve of her thirteenth birthday, the thing Cammie most wants is a mom. A prison might not be the best place to search for a mother, but Cammie is determined and she's willing to work with what she's got. [Courtesy of The Publisher]

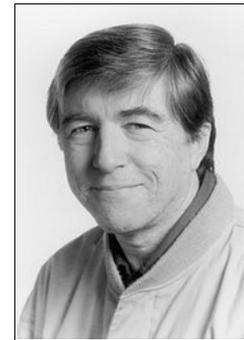

Author Biography

Jerry Spinelli

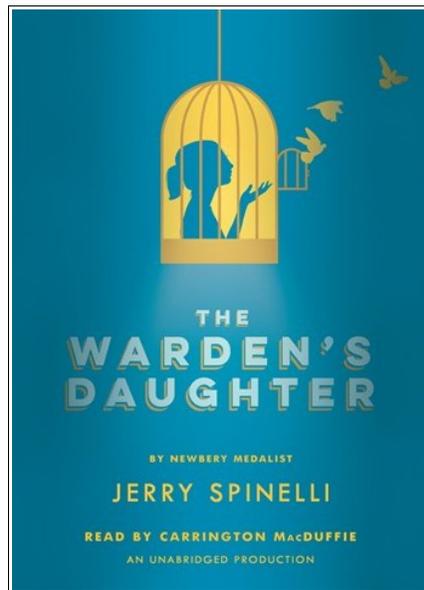

Born in 1941 in Norristown, Pennsylvania, Jerry Spinelli discovered his calling in 1957 when his high school football team won a big game. The town celebrated, his fellow students raced through the streets, but Jerry sneaked back home and marked the occasion in his own way. He wrote a poem. Later the town newspaper published it. "And," he reports, "I've been a writer ever since."

Married to Eileen Spinelli, who is also a writer, Jerry was for many years an editor for the Chilton Company.

Jerry Spinelli's immensely popular books include Space Station Seventh Grade, Jason and Marceline, Who Put That Hair in My Toothbrush?, and maniac magee, which has won more than fifteen state children's book awards in addition to the newbery medal. (Biography courtesy of the publisher)

Cammie 2017
Cammie 1959 - Chapters 1-6

Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of The Warden's Daughter is twelve-year old “Cannonball” Cammie O'Reilly, who lives with her warden father in an apartment above the entrance to the Hancock County Prison. It is very important for the main character of a story to be appealing in some way, and be able to hold the reader's interest. What is one book (or movie) that you have read or seen which features an unforgettable protagonist? What was it about this character that made him/her so memorable?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

dungarees	audible	multitude	dormant
unprecedented	resistance	colossal	implored

1. The prison yard contained a _____ of women inmates.
2. We both _____ the policeman not to give us a speeding ticket.
3. Usain Bolt's record-breaking race was _____ in the world of sports.
4. Her cold was so bad that her voice was barely _____.
5. She made a _____ mistake when she accused her mother of lying.
6. I didn't think there would be so much _____ to the principal's new rules.
7. “Don't worry,” the scout master said. “It looks like the bee hive is _____.”
8. Go up to your room and put on your new pair of _____.

Questions

1. According to Cammie, what did the Hancock County Prison resemble?

2. Why might Eloda Pupko be considered an unusual person to have as a maid?

3. As Chapter One concludes, what decision did Cammie arrive at?

4. Describe the circumstances of Cammie's mother's death.

5. What made Cammie finally give into obeying Eloda when asked to be responsible for her own dishes at mealtime?

6. Describe your personal impression of Reggie.

7. What did Reggie consider to be her mission before Cammie and Reggie entered Stewart Junior High School? Do you think she will be successful? Why or why not?

8. Describe what is meant by the expression, cigarettes were kissing.

9. Describe how Cammie averted a confrontation in Chapter 6.

Language Activities

A. Cliffhanger

Chapter Six contains an important literary device called a cliffhanger. A cliffhanger usually occurs at the end of a chapter when the author leaves the reader in suspense. How is this true in Chapter Six? Why do you think the author ended the chapter this way?

B. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter Six is ... she (Boo Boo) came bounding and laughing across the yard like a huge denim beach ball. In this example, what two things are being compared?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) the slamming of a prison cell

b) the taste of scrapple

C. Scrapple.

Cammie really seems to enjoy eating scrapple. Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, investigate this unusual food item. Record the main ingredients below, as well as any pertinent information regarding its preparation.

D. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first six chapters of The Warden's Daughter.

Word	Anagram	Clue
table		Sheep talk.
sink		Outer covering.
dishes		How an upset audience reacted.
scrapple		People at a concert.
counter		Beat soundly
meals		Guys.
twist		Imbeciles.

E. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here is such an example from Chapter Five: ... King Kong

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

Your favorite sport.
A loud sneeze.
Your choice.
