Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one section (or month) of Because of Mr. Terupt and is comprised of five of the following different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language Activities
- Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to:

a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
c) compare and contrast two characters;
d) determine how characters … respond to challenges;
e) drawing inferences from the text;
f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include personal responsibility, maturing and growth, courage, friendship, empathy and compassion.

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first section of Because of Mr. Terupt.

B. A Quatrain Poem Celebrates A Teacher.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is the first four lines of a humorous poem about a teacher, Miss Krabappel, written by B. Simpson.

My teacher is stupendous,
She’s fun and she’s for real;
She even makes math fun to do,
Long division’s no big deal!

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A – B – C – B. Other rhyming schemes include: AABB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first section of our novel (like teachers or learning).

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

C. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here’s one such example: from the first section: during these tough times.

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Example</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A science project.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A fun recess.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Your choice.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

D. Cliffhanger

The chapter entitled Alexia contains an example of a literary device called a cliffhanger. A cliffhanger usually occurs at the end of a chapter when the author leaves the reader in suspense. How is this true in Alexia’s chapter? Why do you think the author ended the chapter this way?

Good to Know ~ A Wrinkle in Time

Jessica mentions a number of different books throughout this novel, including the Science Fiction classic, A Wrinkle in Time. A Wrinkle in Time was written in 1963 by Madeleine L’Engle. The novel is about a young girl whose scientist father goes missing, and the adventures that come about from her search for him. The book won a number of awards and turned out to be the first in a series involving these characters.
Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel. Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first section of our novel. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
