Synopsis

From beloved Newbery Honor winner and three-time Coretta Scott King Award winner Rita Williams-Garcia comes a powerful and heartfelt novel about loss, family, and love...

Clayton feels most alive when he's with his grandfather, Cool Papa Byrd, and the band of Bluesmen—he can't wait to join them, just as soon as he has a blues song of his own. But then the unthinkable happens. Cool Papa Byrd dies, and Clayton's mother forbids Clayton from playing the blues. And Clayton knows that's no way to live.

Armed with his grandfather's brown porkpie hat and his harmonica, he runs away from home in search of the Bluesmen, hoping he can join them on the road. But on the journey that takes him through the New York City subways and to Washington Square Park, Clayton learns some things that surprise him. [Courtesy of the publisher]

Language Activities

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first three chapters of Clayton Byrd Goes Underground.

Word	Anagram	Clue
open		A slangy denial.
times		Hit.
blues		Greases.
smile		Fruits.
notes		The start of something.
stayed		Dependable.
reason		A married woman in Mexico.

Now find two additional words from the first three chapters which have interesting anagrams to see if you can stump a classmate.

B. A Quatrain Poem Celebrates The Blues.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is the first four lines of the blues song, Key to the Highway, written by Eric Clapton and Little Walter.

I got the key to the highway,
and I'm billed out and bound to go
I'm gonna leave here runnin', cause walkin' is most too slow

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A – B – C – B. Other rhyming schemes include: ABAB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBA, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first three chapters of our novel (like singing the blues).

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

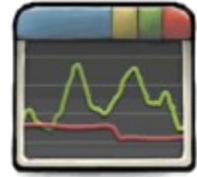

Title: _____

Bonus Question.

In the above poem why do you think the lyricists used the expression most to slow instead of much too slow?

C. Cliffhanger

The chapter, Lost at Sea, contains an important literary device called a cliffhanger. A cliffhanger usually occurs at the end of a chapter when the author leaves the reader in suspense. How is this true of this chapter? Why do you think the author ended the chapter this way?

D. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter Two is: Jazz sounded like angry elephants blowing their trumpets at each other.

~ What is being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) a person playing the guitar (but not very well)

b) the roar of the crowd

c) your choice

Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel. Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first three chapters of our novel. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
