Julie of the Wolves

By Jean Craighead George

Synopsis

To her small Eskimo village, she is known as Miyax; to her friend in San Francisco, she is Julie. When the village is no longer safe for her, Miyax runs away. But she soon finds herself lost in the Alaskan wilderness, without food, without even a compass to guide her. Slowly she is accepted by a pack of Arctic wolves, and she grows to love them as though they were family. With their help, and drawing on her father's teachings, Miyax struggles day by day to survive. But the time comes when she must leave the wilderness and choose between the old ways and the new. Which will she choose? For she is Miyax of the Eskimos – but Julie of the Wolves. [The Publisher]

Author Biography

Jean Craighead George

Jean Craighead George was born in a family of naturalists. On weekends they camped in the woods near their Washington, D.C. home, climbed trees to study owls, gathered edible plants and made fish hooks from twigs. In third grade she began writing and by the end of her life had written more than 100 books.

Her book, Julie of the Wolves won the prestigious Newbery Medal. My Side of the Mountain, was a 1960 Newbery Honor Book. She has also received 20 other awards.

She attended Penn State University graduating with a degree in Science and Literature. In the 1940s she was a reporter for The Washington Post and a member of the White House Press Corps. After her children were born she returned to her love of nature and brought owls, robins, mink, sea gulls, tarantulas - 173 wild animals into their home and backyard. These became characters in her books.

Jean Craighead George passed away May 15, 2012.

Julie of The Wolves

By Jean Craighead George

Name: _____

Julie of the Wolves

By Jean Craighead George

Part 1, Section 1: Amaroq, the wolf

Section 1 – to about p.25, paragraph beginning “All through the night...”

Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The protagonist of Julie of the Wolves is a young Eskimo (Inuit) girl named Miyax whose life goes through some dramatic changes as the story unfolds. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially interesting protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

predicament	dispense	vitality	discern
rigorous	commending	intimidate	monotony

1. Coach Chisholm certainly has a great deal of _____ for a man his age.
2. Prisoners say that the hardest thing about being confined is the _____.
3. The boy only meant to _____ you by waving his fist beneath your nose.
4. The life of an army cadet is most _____.
5. Falling into the old well was the worst _____ he could imagine.
6. They spent at least five minutes _____ her for the great job she did.
7. It is most difficult to _____ who is the tallest student in the class.
8. She wouldn't be so free to _____ advice if she only knew how ridiculous she sounds.

Questions

1. What is the setting of the first part of this section of the novel?

2. Explain why Julie decided it was necessary to attempt to befriend the wolf pack. What made her think this might be possible?

3. The name of the wolf who was the alpha male was _____.

4. Why do many life forms in the Arctic regions tend toward compactness (i.e. they have short limbs)?

5. Miyax was fourteen years old. T or F

6. Why had Miyax run away? Where was she originally headed? Explain why she was going there.

Good to Know

Miyax mentions that the gussak tell stories about wolves killing people. Gussak is the Eskimo term for someone who isn't Eskimo. It comes from the word Cossack – the first Europeans to come in contact with the native people of Alaska.

7. Think of three adjectives which you think would accurately describe Jello's personality.

--	--	--

8. Give one specific example of how Miyax spoke wolf.

9. Describe how Miyax won over Amaroq. How did she discover the importance of this gesture?

Language Activities

- A. Choose ten words from this chapter with two or more syllables. Indicate the syllables by drawing a line between each syllable. Example: good / bye.

B. Life in the Arctic.

The author mentions a number of birds in this chapter. Using resources from your school library or the Internet, select one of the birds from the chart below and research three fascinating facts about it to share with your colleagues. (You may also include a picture.)

Lapland longspurs	buntings
puffins	sandpipers
snowy owl	jaeger
siskin

Bird Choice: _____
