Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one or two chapters of Little Men and is comprised of five different activities:

- 1. Before You Read
- 2. Vocabulary Building
- 3. Comprehension Questions
- 4. Language Activities
- 5. Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters ... respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. It is important, too, that students be encouraged to relate their own feelings and experiences in certain contexts, and describe their own interpretations of particular passages.

- Students can work on the activities at their own pace.
- Every activity need not be completed by all students.
- A portfolio cover is included (p.7) as well as a Checklist (p.6) to keep a record of completed work.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include family and friendship, loyalty, personal growth, accepting responsibilities, learning to accept life's difficulties (the loss of a loved one), coming of age, and diversity.

Author Biography Louisa May Alcott

Louisa May Alcott (November 29, 1832 – March 6, 1888) was an American novelist and poet. She is best known as the author of the best seller, Little Women and its sequel, Little Men. She grew up among many of the well-known intellectuals of the day including Ralph Waldo Emerson and Nathaniel Hawthorne. Alcott's family suffered financial difficulties, and while she worked to help support the family from an early age, she also sought an outlet in writing. She began to receive critical success for her writing in the 1860s. Early in her career, she sometimes used the pen name A. M. Barnard, under which she wrote novels for young adults. Published in 1868, Little Women is set in the Alcott family home, Hillside, in Concord Massachusetts. The novel is loosely based on Alcott's childhood experiences with her three sisters. The novel was very well received and is still a popular today, having been made into movies several times. Alcott was an abolitionist and a feminist and remained unmarried throughout her life. She died in Boston on March 6, 1888.

Chapter 1

Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or "good guy". One of the main characters of Little Men is Nat, an orphaned twelve-year-old boy who joins about a dozen other young people at Plumfield, a school run by the Bhaer family. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you've seen. What do you think makes for an interesting protagonist? (One that is difficult to forget.)

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

- a) read the clue in the right-hand column.
- b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first chapter of Little Men.

fears		More secure.
strip		Journeys.
shoes		Used by firefighters.
where		A person who cuts wood.
regard		A teacher's role.
sport		Harbors.
stairs		A stringed instrument.

Now find two additional words from the first chapter which have interesting anagrams to see if you can stump a classmate.

Word	Anagram	Clue

Good to Know ~ An Omnibus or Horsebus.

Nat arrives at Plumfield in an omnibus. Although the omnibus of Nat's time resembled our modern buses in some respects, it was quite a bit different. For one thing it was horse-drawn, as Little Men was first published in 1871, long before motorized vehicles were invented. In a typical arrangement, two wooden benches along the sides of the passenger cabin held several sitting passengers facing each other. The driver sat on a separate, front-facing bench, in an elevated position outside the passengers' enclosed cabin

B. A Quatrain Poem About an Orphan.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is the first stanza of a longer poem written by the poet, Monica G. Bain. It is called, Lost Orphan.

Was it something I did? Was it something I said? Did you not want a kid? Is that why you fled?

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A – B – A – B Other rhyming schemes include: AABB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AAAB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first three chapters of our novel.

Mr. Laurie (Some Background Info)

Mr. Laurie, short for Theodore Laurence, plays an important role in this novel. When Mrs. Bhaer was growing up, Laurie was her family's wealthy next-door neighbor. Until Jo and her sisters entered his life he was moody, bad-tempered, and often bored. His grandfather, old Mr. Laurence, wanted him to go into the family business and be a merchant, importing expensive goods from India. Laurie, however, wants to be a great composer, or maybe just run away and have adventures while traveling. When Laurie and Jo meet, they immediately become good friends. Laurie's feelings eventually turn romantic, but Jo insists that she could never fall in love with him because they're too similar – both of them have touchy tempers. Luckily, he's able to transfer his affections to her sister Amy, whose genteel manners make a much better match for his wealth and social position. [Adapted from the schmoop website.]

C. Personification is giving human qualities to something that is not human. The following example is taken from Chapter 1: his (Mr. Bhaer's) eyes had exchanged telegrams with his wife's.
Describe how Mr. Bhaer's eyes are personified in this example.
Create your own example of personification.
As you continue to read through the novel be on the lookout for other examples of this literary device. If you should find one, come back to this question and enter it below.
D. Many authors enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same sound at the beginning of several words. Here's one such example: from Chapter One: Mrs. Bhaer laid out clean clothes Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.
A pillow fight.
Bath water.
Your choice.

Extension Activity

Storyboard
