Suggestions and Expectations

This 70 page curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on one or two chapters of Shiloh and is comprised of four different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language and Extension Activities

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking.

When 11-year-old Marty Preston chances upon a mistreated beagle pup in his hometown of Friendly, West Virginia, he is not prepared for the ethical questions he has to face. Should he return the dog to its owner, only to have the animal abused again? Should he tell his parents? Should he steal food to help the poor creature? Marty's efforts to cope with these questions provides the moral backbone for this story, which is presented in a language and manner that will be understood by third- and fourth-grade readers. Phyllis Reynolds Naylor was born in 1933 in Poptar, Indiana. She is an American author best known for her children's-novel trilogy Shiloh (a 1992 Newbery Medal winner), Shiloh Season and Saving Shiloh, all made into movies. She grew up during the Great Depression with her older sister Norma, and younger brother, John. Her parents read stories to her when she was young, and her favorite book as a child was Huckleberry Finn. She began writing her own stories when she was in elementary school.

Naylor graduated from Joliet Township High School in 1951 and from Joliet Junior College in 1953. She worked as an elementary school teacher and eventually got a job as an editorial assistant for a magazine.

Her first children's book was called The Galloping Goat and Other Stories and was published in 1965. Naylor now has written over 130 books, and about 2000 articles. Naylor says that she will write "as long as she can hold a pencil".

Shiloh

By Phyllis Reynolds Naylor

Name: ____________________________________________
Before you read the chapter:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The protagonist of Shiloh is a very likeable eleven-year-old boy, Marty Preston who lives in rural West Virginia. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you’ve seen. What do you think makes for an especially intriguing protagonist?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

1. Tim had a ____________ hamburger for lunch.

2. Charlene’s grandmother contracted _______________ and had to spend some time in the local hospital.

3. The outboard motor of a boat is driven by its ________________.

4. No one expects you to _____________ before the president, but be respectful.

5. The shotgun shell was filled with ____________.

6. ________________ for so long is very hard on a catcher’s legs.

7. The people of Israel planted thousands of ________________ trees.

8. It is obvious by the way the puppy is always ________________ around, that it was cruelly treated.
1. Describe what upset Marty at Sunday dinner. What does this tell the reader about his personality?

2. Describe the setting of the story for Chapter One.

3. Marty is eleven years old and takes his .22 rifle out with him when he goes for a walk. Do you think it was responsible of his parents to allow this? Defend your response.

4. Math in Action. Marty mentions that his home is halfway between Wheeling and Parkersburg. If you check a map in your school library or on the Internet you will find that it is about 80 miles (129 km) between Wheeling and Parkersburg (as the crow flies). If Marty’s home is about 35 miles (56 km) to Parkersburg, how far then is it to Wheeling?

   Answer:

5. Why did Marty enjoy his walks in the morning best of all?
6. After meeting the dog, what convinces Marty not to try to shoot the branch from the tree?

7. What did Marty finally do which drew the dog to him?

8. Investigate: On his walk Marty mentions passing a gristmill. Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, research the purpose of a gristmill?

9. Marty’s dad said that he thought the beagle belonged to ________________.

10. Although the beagle doesn’t have a mark on him, Marty suspects that the dog was abused. Why does he suspect this?

BONUS QUESTION:

Shiloh is one of a number of very popular “dog novels”. What are three other popular novels for young readers which feature a dog. One example is given below

1. Where the Red Fern Grows
2.
4.
Language Activities

A. The dog that Marty meets is a beagle. The beagle is classified as a breed from the hound group. Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, match each picture below with the proper breed.

B. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter One is “I whistle. It’s like pressing a magic button.”

What two things are being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your imagination:

a) the sound of the bag pipes

b) the waves on the shore of a beach

Bonus: Keep your eye open for another example of a simile as you read the novel. When you find one, remember to come back and enter it here

C. Copy out any three sentences from these chapters and underline the nouns.

.22 rifle similar to Marty’s

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel.

Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first one or two chapters of Shiloh. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
