Chapter 1

Before you read the chapters:

The protagonist in most novels features the main character or “good guy”. The main character of Soldier's Heart is Charley a fifteen year old boy who lives in Winona, Minnesota in 1861, at the start of the American Civil War. Think back on some of your favorite characters from past novels you have read or movies you've seen. Who would you say is your most favorite character ever? What made you select this character?

Vocabulary:

Choose a word from the list to complete each sentence.

violate	regiments	cowlick	slogan
federal	assemble	hullabaloo	politician

1. The soldiers were awakened by a loud _____ out in the courtyard.
2. The regiment's _____ was Death Before Dishonor.
3. “Please do not _____ the code of the army,” the sergeant pleaded.
4. The _____ government passed a law enforcing all young men to join the army.
5. My cousin decided to become a _____ and run in the next election.
6. It is not lawful to _____ in large crowds before that government building.
7. He swiped the _____ away from his forehead.
8. A battalion in the Union army usually consisted of five _____.

Questions

1. Describe the setting of the story at the beginning of Chapter One.

2. What motivated Charley to join the army?

3. Why didn't Charley join up locally.

4. There were about _____ men in a regiment and from _____ to _____ in a company. This would mean that there would be about how many companies in a regiment?

- a) 11 b) 8 c) 15 d) 13

5. All the companies would assemble at Fort Sumter before going off to fight. T or F

6. Why didn't his mother put up much of a fight when told by Charley that he was joining the army?

7. Even if you didn't know how long this war would last, what is there about the conclusion of this chapter which hints that it will be a long war? (This is an example of the literary device called foreshadowing.)

Language Activities

A. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first chapter of Soldier's Heart.

Word	Anagram	Clue
death		Despised.
north		Ouch!
steel		Places where roads meet.
respect		Ghost.
spill		Medication.
bread		Abraham Lincoln had one.
swarm		Heats up.

Now find two additional words from the first chapter which have interesting anagrams to see if you can stump a classmate.

Word	Anagram	Clue

Good to Know ~ The American Civil War

As mentioned in our story, the Civil War began the the attack on Fort Sumter (April 12, 1861). Eleven southern states left the Union around this time and were faced down by twenty northern states.

This war would last four long, bloody years and go down in history as the bloodiest war in American history. The conflict claimed more than 620,000 casualties (an average of about 500 per day) with countless others injured. It is likely that the majority of these casualties were young men like Charley.

B. A Quatrain Poem of the Civil War.

The quatrain is a popular form of rhymed verse. It is a poem of four lines, is usually light and can be humorous. The following quatrain is actually the first four lines of the popular American Civil War song, The Battle Hymn of the Republic. There were a number of songs like this which were popular with soldiers on both side of the conflict.

*Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is trampling out the vintage where grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword,
His truth is marching on.*

Various rhyming schemes make up a quatrain poem. As you can see, the above four lines have a rhyming scheme of A – A – A – B Other rhyming schemes include: ABAB, AAAA, AABA, ABBA, ABBB, and AABB.

Your task is to write your own quatrain poem. You may choose a rhyming scheme that fits with your own personal creation. The theme should have something to do with the themes established in the first chapter of our novel (like patriotism or courage).

The Quatrain Poem

Now create your own Quatrain Poem. Your poem must follow the format of a quatrain poem described above (and must rhyme).

Title: _____

Bonus Question.

Judging from the first four lines of these lyrics, why do you think this song was so popular with the soldiers of the north?

C. Army Ranks.

Using resources in your school library or on the Internet, arrange the following ranks in the army in order beginning with the highest (1 to 10).

	Lieutenant		Private
	Major General		Sergeant
	Major		Corporal
	Colonel		Brigadier General
	Captain		Lieutenant Colonel

D. A simile is a comparison using the words “like” or “as”. An example from Chapter Two is: . . . those shirts were as hot as original sin . . .

~ What is being compared in this example?

Invent your own similes comparing the following items with something from your own imagination:

a) a man startled from his sleep

b) a bullfrog's croak

c) your choice

Extension Activity

Storyboard

A storyboard is a series of pictures that tell about an important event in a story. A storyboard can tell the story of only one scene – or the entire novel. Complete the storyboard below illustrating the events described in the first chapter of our novel. You may wish to practice your drawings on a separate piece of paper.
