Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on two or three chapters of The Castle in the Attic and is comprised of five of the following different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language Activities
- Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to:

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases... including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters ... respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story ... and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include Medieval Times, courage and persistence, overcoming one's fears, a pure heart can overcome evil, loyalty and friendship.

Synopsis

William has just received the best present of his life. It's an old, real-looking stone and wooden model of a castle, with a drawbridge, moat, and a finger-high knight to guard the gates. It's the mysterious castle his housekeeper has told him about, and even though William is sad she's leaving, now the castle is his!

William can't wait to play with it – he's certain there's something magical about the castle. And sure enough, when he picks up the tiny silver knight, it comes alive in his hand!

Sir Simon tells William a mighty story of wild sorcery, wizards, and magic. And suddenly William is off on a fantastic quest to another land and another time – where a fiery dragon and an evil wizard are waiting to do battle...

Questions

1. What is the setting of the story at the beginning of Chapter One?

2. What disturbing news did Mrs. Phillips tell William? Describe how William responded to this news.

3. It is probable that Mrs. Phillips is fairly elderly in this story. There are two possible clues revealing this to us: 1) She mentions that her husband was killed in World War II. 2) If the novel is set in approximately the same year as the book was written, it would have taken place around 1985. If this is the case, about how old is Mrs. Phillips? How did you arrive at this figure?

4. William is _______ years old when the story begins.

5. What strategy did William come up with to try to make Mrs. Phillips stay? How did she react to this strategy?

6. What surprise did Mrs. Phillips have for William?
7. After reading the description of the different parts of the castle, which part did you find the most interesting? Why?

8. Describe in your own words the legend of the Silver Knight which was told to William.

9. As Chapter Two draws to a close, what do we learn that William was still determined to accomplish? How do you think he might do this?

Good to Know ~ Castles

Castles were a fortified structure built by nobility over the course of 900 years in Europe and Middle East during the Middle Ages. Early castles were constructed of earth and timber, but later they were improved to include stone. In the 12th and 13th Centuries towers became very popular as a form of defense, as did the building of walled structures within larger structures. By the 15th Century and the advent of gunpowder, castle walls became vulnerable to cannon fire, yet the building of castles continued until the 16th Century.

B. Anagrams

An anagram is a word that is formed by changing the order of the letters of another word. For example, the letters in the word WAS can also form the word SAW. Follow these directions to form the anagrams:

a) read the clue in the right-hand column.

b) Using the word in the left-hand column move the letters around in any order, but you must use all the letters. All of the words in the left-hand column can be found in the first four chapters of The Castle in the Attic.

C. Knights of the Realm

Mrs. Phillips mentions the Silver Knight to William in Chapter Two. A knight is someone who has been given the honorary title of knighthood by a king or queen – this was usually because of something brave or noble done by the knight. A number of famous knights (both real and fictitious) have come down through history: King Arthur, Sir. Galahad, Sir Lancelot, Richard the Lionheart, William Wallace (Braveheart), John Hawkwood, The Black Prince (Edward of Woodstock), Sir. John Chandos, El Cid and many other brave men.

Using resources in your school library or on the Internet investigate one of the above knights (or another approved by your teacher). From the information gathered, write a one page report on this individual on a separate sheet of paper. Your report should include personal information about this person (birthdate, place of birth, death date), accomplishments, how he achieved fame, etc.
