Suggestions and Expectations

This curriculum unit can be used in a variety of ways. Each chapter of the novel study focuses on between two and three chapters of The Shakespeare Stealer and is comprised of five of the following different activities:

- Before You Read
- Vocabulary Building
- Comprehension Questions
- Language Activities
- Extension Activities

Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;
- c) compare and contrast two characters;
- d) determine how characters . . . respond to challenges;
- e) drawing inferences from the text;
- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. Students will also be expected to provide clear answers to questions and well-constructed explanations. It is critical as well that students be able to relate events and the feelings of characters to their own lives and experiences and describe their own interpretation of a particular passage.

A strength of the unit is that students can work on the activities at their own pace. Every activity need not be completed by all students. A portfolio cover is included (p.7) so that students may organize their work and keep it all in one place. A Student Checklist is also included (p.6) so that a record of completed work may be recorded.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include belonging, honesty, loyalty to one's friends (and betrayal), Shakespeare, Elizabethan England, the theater and acting.

B. The Shakespearean Sonnet

The sonnets of Shakespeare are referred to in this exciting novel. A sonnet is a poem which expresses thought, emotion or idea. It has a very distinct form, usually of 14 lines which are formed by three quatrains with a rhyming couplet for the last two lines.

An Example! - A Shakespearean Sonnet Poem

(The rhyming scheme has been placed in brackets at the end of each line.)

Sonnet 130

My Mistress' eyes are nothing like the sun; (a)
Coral is far more red than her lips' red; (b)
If snow be white, why then her breasts are dun; (a)
If hairs be wires, black wires grow on her head. (b)

I have seen roses damasked, red and white, (c)
But no such roses see I in her cheeks; (d)
And in some perfumes is there more delight (c)
There in the breath that from my mistress reeks. (d)

I love to hear her speak; yet well I know (e)
That music hath a far more pleasing sound; (f)
I grant I never saw a goddess go; (e)
My mistress, when she walks' treads on the ground. (f)

Any yet, by heaven, I think my love is rare (g)
As any she belied with false compare. (g)

Now try your hand at writing the first stanza of a sonnet which follows the above format.
