Links with the Common Core Standards (U.S.)

Many of the activities included in this curriculum unit are supported by the Common Core Standards. For instance the Reading Standards for Literature, Grade 5, makes reference to

- a) determining the meaning of words and phrases. . . including figurative language;
- b) explaining how a series of chapters fits together to provide the overall structure;

- f) determining a theme of a story . . . and many others.

A principal expectation of the unit is that students will develop their skills in reading, writing, listening and oral communication, as well as in reasoning and critical thinking. It is important, too, that students be encouraged to relate their own feelings and experiences in certain contexts, and describe their own interpretations of particular passages.

- Students can work on the activities at their own pace.
- Every activity need not be completed by all students.
- A portfolio cover is included (p.7) as well as a Checklist (p.6) to keep a record of your work.

Themes which may be taught in conjunction with the novel include the sea and sea voyages; sailing ships; mythology; the importance of loyalty and friendship; leaders and leadership; devotion to the ruler of Narnia, Aslan.

Synopsis

Narnia . . . where anything can happen (and most often does) . . . and where the adventure begins. The Dawn Treader is the first ship Narnia has seen in centuries. King Caspian has built it for his voyage to find the seven lords, good men whom his evil uncle Miraz banished when he usurped the throne. The journey takes Edmund, Lucy, their cousin Eustace and Caspian to the Eastern Islands beyond the Silver Sea, toward Aslan's country at the End of the World. (The Publisher)

Author Biography

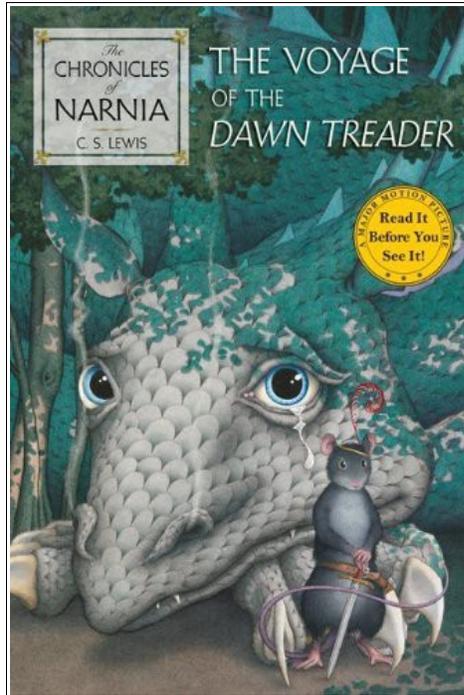

C.S. Lewis

Don't use words too big for the subject. Don't say 'infinitely' when you mean 'very'; otherwise you'll have no word left when you want to talk about something really infinite. C.S. Lewis.

Clives Staples (Jack) Lewis was born in Belfast, Ireland in 1898. He was a close friend of J.R. R. Tolkien (Lord of the Rings) when both men were faculty members at Oxford University in Oxford, England. Dr. Lewis was a devout Christian who wrote many books defending and explaining his faith. In 1956, he married the American writer Joy Gresham, who died four years later of cancer at the age of 45. Lewis's works have been translated into more than 30 languages and have sold millions of copies. The Chronicles of Narnia have sold the most and have been popularized on stage, TV, radio and the movies. Lewis died on Nov. 22, 1963 - the same day that President Kennedy was assassinated.

Language Activities

A. The Dawn Treader

The Dawn Treader was a Narnian ship built by King Caspian X. She was the first Narnian ship to be built since the Golden Age and was commissioned by King Caspian, so that he might sail beyond the Lone Islands to the unknown Eastern Ocean. Although we don't know exactly how to classify the ship it is possible that she resembled a sloop, popular on the high seas many centuries ago.

Using resources in your school library or the Internet, do a further investigation of this type of ship. Research three interesting facts about the sloop - its appearance, purpose, etc. You may also wish to include a sketch of the typical 17th Century sloop.

The Sloop

B. The author seems to enjoy using alliteration – a literary device where the author repeats the same consonant sound at the beginning of several words in close succession (especially words beginning with the letter s). An example from Chapter One is: “a ship sailing straight toward you”.

Using your imagination, create your own examples of alliteration from the following topics. Each example must contain a minimum of three words.

The noise of city traffic
The call of a song bird
Your own topic

C. A quintet is a five-line verse that tells a story. The quintet has a syllable pattern and can bring an exciting scene to life. (It doesn't have to rhyme.)

Line 1 – tells when , 3 syllables Line 2 – tells where , 5 syllables Line 3 – tells what , 7 syllables Line 4 – describes activity , 9 syllables Line 5 – contains a thought , 3 syllables.	Create a quintet poem using ideas from recent events in The Voyage of the Dawn Treader .
